Marlene Gafrick:
Planning for Houston's Future Development

Thursday, Nov. 19, 2009

5:30 – 7:30 pm

Speaker:

Please join ULI Young Leaders for this exclusive conversation with City of Houston Planning & Development Director, Marlene Gafrick.

Marlene Gafrick

Director
Planning & Development Dept.
City of Houston

Planning and land use regulation have taken more of the spotlight in the City of Houston over the past few years. The recent Urban Corridors Ordinance, intended to encourage density of development in the new light rail corridors, brought these issues to center stage. The desirability of a more urban, pedestrian-oriented style of development, and the interplay between City leaders and the private real estate development community, continue to be vigorously debated topics.

Location:

Weingarten Realty Investors

Corporate Headquarters
2600 Citadel Plaza Dr.
Houston, TX
77008

Gafrick will give an overview of these and other major issues the City of Houston Planning & Development Department has addressed during her 29-year tenure. She will also outline issues Houston's new Mayoral administration is likely to face in the areas of transportation, zoning and other land-use challenges in our rapidly growing city.

Drinks and hors d'oeuvres will be served.
